

Name: _____

Date: _____

Remains

Across

2. This is a type of language the Armitage uses
3. The speaker uses this early on in the poem to create the sense that the looter's death was a collective act.
6. 'dug in behind enemy lines' is what technique?
7. The speaker feels a continuation of this as he struggles to erase the memory from his mind
9. In stanza two the reader might feel that repetition is over-emphasised to shift what?

10. The way the voice comes through in the poem, gives the reader a sense of the soldier's troubled _____

Down

1. Armitage uses these to make the poem seem like a spoken account
4. The language in the poem is almost presented as an everyday _____
5. 'all' 'three' 'somebody else' are repeated in what stanza to highlight the other people that were involved?
8. The quote 'dug in' shows how deeply the memory is _____