

Renaissance

Across

6. A man wrote 39 plays. English poet and playwright considered one of the greatest writers of the English language; works include Julius Caesar, Macbeth, Romeo and Juliet, and Hamlet.

7. A 14-line poem about one idea.

8. A fight by people against a government; a struggle for change.

12. An Italian poet famous for writing the Divine Comedy that describes a journey through hell and purgatory and paradise guided by Virgil and his idealized Beatrice

13. A person who carves statues.

15. A person who supports an artist with money.

16. The home of the pope.

17. Having nothing to do with religion.

18. A painting, drawing, or sculpture of Mary, the Mother of Jesus, holding the dead body of Jesus. The word means "pity" in Italian.

20. A belief that human actions, ideas, and works are important.

22. A story that is acted out on stage.

23. One of the most famous women during the Italian Renaissance. She had political power. She was also a well-educated woman.

Down

1. One of the most famous paintings in the world by Leonardo da Vinci. She looks at us with a mysterious smile.

2. A person who draws plans for buildings.

3. Rebirth; a period in European history that focused on being an individual and expanding creative thoughts and ideas.

4. A painting done in wet plaster on a wall.

5. A true Renaissance man. He had many interests and much skill. He was an artist, a scientist, an engineer, and a clever inventor.

9. A drawing of a person

10. leaders of religious groups.

11. A small church.

14. In 1469, the most famous ruler of Florence came to power. He used his family's wealth to help artists and scholars.

19. A teacher who teaches one person at a time.

21. The Renaissance began in northern_____.