

Research Terminology

Across

4. a place, person, or thing from which something comes or can be obtained

9. express the meaning of (the writer or speaker or something written or spoken) using different words, especially to achieve greater clarity

10. a book, article, or other source that provides information about an object of study but does not constitute direct, first-hand evidence

11. a list of works that you referenced in the body of your paper

12. give a brief statement of the main points of (something)

13. a document, first-hand account, or other source that constitutes direct evidence of an object of study

15. prejudice in favor of or against one thing, person, or group compared with another, usually in a way considered to be unfair

Down

1. a citation style in which partial citations are enclosed within parentheses and embedded in the text

2. a list of the books referred to in a scholarly work, typically printed as an appendix.

3. the use of a source of information in order to ascertain something

5. Correct in all details; exact

6. a quotation from or reference to a book, paper, or author, especially in a scholarly work

7. the practice of taking someone else's work or ideas and passing them off as one's own

8. the systematic investigation into and study of materials and sources in order to establish facts and reach new conclusions

14. closely connected or appropriate to what is being done or considered