

Resources

Across

5. Something that helps us achieve a goal or fulfill a function

7. any of a class of naturally occurring solid inorganic substances with a characteristic crystalline form

10. First (and least important) trait to have a high standard of living. You must have a sufficient _____ to have a pool of labour and a domestic market for the goods and services the country produces.

13. Materials that can be found in nature and exploited to make a profit (2 words)

14. A natural resource that can be replaced in a human lifetime

Down

1. Natural, non-renewable resources that are combustable and organic

2. Third trait to have a high standard of living. Have the opportunity for _____ and training, which will enable them to become productive members of society

3. A resource that cannot be replenished in a human lifetime

4. The second trait to have a high standard of living.

6. The most important resource

8. Human made resources a society uses to further the creation of wealth

9. A renewable natural resource used in the energy sector.

11. A renewable natural resource

12. Type of resource that makes up the workforce of an organization, business sector, or economy