

Respecting Client Rights

Across

- 2. something to which a person is justly entitled
- 6. focusing on all dimensions of health
- 8. state of relying on one another
- 9. a body of laws that govern the behaviour of a country's residents
- 10. specific law
- 11. feeling compassion for, or understanding the difficulties of another person

Down

- 1. having the freedom and choice to make decisions that affect one's life
- 3. state of not relying on others for control or authority
- 4. respecting, guarding, and using discretion with personal and private information about a client
- 5. state of relying on others for support
- 7. seeing things from another person's point of view