

Review for End-of-Year IEW Quiz

Across

- 4. This is the problem, want, or need of the main character in a narrative story.
- 8. This is one of the elements writers develop in the first paragraph of a narrative story.
- 9. Some examples of these are facts, questions, suspended interest, shock, and name dropping.
- 12. This is one of the subordinating conjunctions in www.asia.b.
- 14. This #2 opener does not contain a verb.

16. This sentence tells the reader the main idea of a paragraph.

Down

- 1. A FANBOYS word is this part of speech.
- 2. This word group must always contain a verb.
- 3. This is a decoration where you give human qualities to nonhuman things.
- 5. You may use this to connect 2 independent clauses where no FANBOYS has been used.
- 6. This type of word begins a #4 opener.

- 7. This is a decoration where 2 or more words in close proximity have the same beginning sound.
- 10. This is a decoration where a comparison is made by using "like" or "as".
- 11. This is a decoration where vivid, descriptive language, 5 senses or emotion words are used.
- 13. This sentence restates the topic sentence and wraps up the paragraph.
- 15. A true -ly dress-up is this part of speech.