

Review vocab for STATS

Across

- 2. Is one for which no data has been collected but that nevertheless has influence on other variables
- 4. Observations and measurements of individuals are conducted in a way that doesn't change the response or variable being measured
- 7. Is used to assign individuals to the two treatment groups, this helps bias while selecting numbers
- 9. Meaning different things to different people
- 10. tone/body language/dress/gender

- 11. Is the improvement or change that is the result of patients just believing in the treatment whether or not its effective
 - 13. Individuals with strong feelings are more likely to respond than others
 - 14. that results when respondents differ in meaningful ways from nonrespondents
- Down
- 1. Of the experiment on many patients reduces the possibility that the difference in pain relief for groups

- 3. Respondents may not accurately remember when or whether an event took place
- 5. May be part of the study of they may be outside lurking variables
- 6. Measurements or observations from part of the population
- 8. The question may be worded in such a way as to elicit a specific response
- 12. Measurements or observations from the entire population