

Rhetorical Terms: Structure and Comparison

Across

4. an author's exploitation of a single metaphor or analogy of length through multiple liked tenors.
6. a story, poem, or picture that can be interpreted to reveal a hidden meaning.
8. a phrase/word that's later referred back to an earlier word, noun, or phrase.
10. an understatement that serves to showcase a situation and create dramatic irony.

11. either a word or group of words that is self-contradicting.
12. a comparison between two things.

13. a figure of speech that's used to create a purposeful exaggeration for dramatic effect.

Down

1. the use of language to appeal to the senses such as a simile or metaphor.
2. the direct opposite of something else.

3. a syntactical element that shows how things are either the same or different.

5. placing two things together in writing so their differences are able to be showcased.

7. self-contradictory statement that when explained may prove to be well founded of true.

9. an understatement where an affirmative is expressed by the negative of the contrary.