

Rivers chapter 5

Across

- 2. the flat land beside the river
5. the process where water vapor becomes liquid
8. the top of the groundwater
13. rainwater that flows along the ground
17. rocks and stones collide with each other and wear away
20. when a liquid substance become gas
21. all kinds of water particles that fall from the sky
22. the point where a river starts
23. the bottom of a channel

24. rain falling in an area that feeds the river

25. the dividing line between a river basin and the next

Down

- 1. the point where two rivers meet
3. a big bend river
4. water is forced in the cracks in the bank, which breaks the bank
6. water that soaks into the ground
7. water that runs down to slope a river
9. smaller rivers of the main river

10. rocks scrape away the river bed and banks and wear them away

11. a narrow u-shaped lake near a river

12. the deposit material of the river

14. the dissolving of material from the bed and banks

15. the heavier material that is carried along the bottom

16. a wide river mouth into the sea

18. a layer where water can't go through

19. the land on each side of a channel