

Roaring 20s and Great Depression

Across

- 3. the first car produced by the Ford Motor Company that took advantage of the economies of scale provided by assembly-line production and was therefore affordable to a large segment of the population
- 9. the rejection of outside influences in favor of local or native customs
- 10. a nineteenth-century term for the illegal transport of alcoholic beverages that became popular during prohibition
- 11. the worst economic downturn in the history of the industrialized world
- 12. Economic boom ended by _____; the stock market crashes, leading to the Great Depression.

- 13. •Songs would often chronicle the singers personal troubles and the daily racial problems associated with being African American in the prejudiced and segregated South
- 14. Right to vote with the amendment
- 15. the center of American movie production with five movie studios dominating the industry
- 16. a nationwide movement that expressed racism, nativism, anti-Semitism, and anti-Catholicism

Down

- 1. the notion that African Americans had a distinct and separate national heritage that should inspire pride and a sense of community

- 2. Period of economic prosperity with a distinctive cultural edge in the United States and Western Europe
- 4. a group of writers who came of age during World War I and expressed their disillusionment with the era
- 5. someone who lives outside of their home country a young, modern woman who embraced the new morality and fashions of the Jazz Age
- 6. a generation of women in the 1920s who wore short skirts, bobbed their hair, listened to jazz, and flaunted their disdain for what was then considered acceptable behavior.
- 7. a manufacturing process that allowed workers to stay in one place as the work came to them
- 8. the more permissive mores adopted by many young people in the 1920s