

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Rock Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. What is a set of natural processes that form, change, break, and reform rocks?
5. What is composed of various minerals which are in turn composed of chemical elements?
8. What type of igneous rock forms when molten material flows and solidifies underground?
9. What is material that settles out of the water or air called?
11. The changing of an existing rock by heat and pressure.

Down

1. The process with no atom bounds form when heat and pressure break original bounds?

3. What type of igneous rock forms when molten material cools above the crust of the earth?
4. An arrangement of minerals in flat or wavy parallel bounds.
6. What type of rock forms when heat or pressure causes older rocks to change into new types of rocks?
7. What type of rock forms when pieces of older rocks, plants, and other loose material get pressed together?
10. What type of rock is formed through the cooling and solidification of magma or lava?