

Name: _____

Date: _____

Rocks/Minerals Crossword by Y. A.

Across

3. A type of rock that can be formed intrusively or extrusively.

4. When a rock is altered by the effect of heat and pressure.

7. Lines that form on a rock due to intense pressure.

8. Rocks, organic matter, and other material that had broken down as particles.

11. Molten rock that lies above the surface due to an eruption.

12. The breaking down and transportation of rocks.

13. When minerals crystallize between grains of sediment, similarly to glue.

14. When a rock is worn down/destroyed by physical or chemical causes.

Down

1. A type of rock formed processes such as weathering and cementation.

2. When layers of sediment are compressed by the weight of other layers.

5. A type of rock that is formed by extreme heat/pressure.

6. Molten rock that lies under the earth's surface.

9. When sediment is dropped and settles in one place.

10. A cycle that shows how rocks are created or processed.