

Rocks and Minerals

Across

4. Type of rock that forms from molten rock.
6. The color of the powder that a mineral leaves when it is scratched across a special plate.
9. Type of rock that forms when layers of sediments settle on top of one another and harden.
10. Minerals are classified according to their _____.

Down

1. Granite is an _____ igneous rock.
2. A natural, non-living, solid crystal that makes up rocks.
3. Property of a mineral that describes how it reflects light.
5. A type of rock formed when heat and pressure change the properties of a rock.
7. The measure of how much is in a given amount space.
8. The word igneous comes from the Latin word for _____.