

Roles of Government Agencies in Healthcare

Across

- 5. Insurance policy that an employee can use as a benefit.
- 7. ___ stands for Center for disease control.
- 10. ___ stands for Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments.
- 11. ___ stands for Department of Health and Human Services.
- 14. What is an infectious agent or hazardous biological material?
- 15. What is the name of the program that provides healthcare for individuals 65 years of age or older.
- 16. ___ stands for Food and Drug Administration.

- 17. What is it called when a preset amount of money must be paid before an insurance company will provide compensation?

- 20. Service that provides medical for residents at little or no cost.

Down

- 1. Company that provides healthcare benefits in return for payments.
- 2. What is it called when a patient must pay a preset amount of money out of pocket for an office visit?
- 3. Name for a medicine that is subject to statutory control.
- 4. Blood or body fluids that are potentially infectious.

- 6. An insurance policy that an individual buys.
- 8. ___ stands for National Institutes of Health.
- 9. ___ stands for Occupational Health and Safety Administration.
- 12. Program that focuses on quality care for a reduced rate.
- 13. ___ stands for Drug Enforcement Agency.
- 18. ___ stands for Environmental Protection Agency.
- 19. ___ stands for Children Health Information Program.