

Romeo and Juliet: Act 4

Across

- 2. To torment or torture; to inflict great pain upon.
- 8. A false statement spoken with the intent of harming the reputation of another.
- 9. Comfort.
- 10. An evergreen shrub of the mint family; a traditional symbol of remembrance.
- 11. To end; to discontinue

Down

- 1. Exceeding just or reasonable limits; excessive.
- 3. A narcotic, short-stemmed plant of the nightshade family.
- 4. Overthrown, overcome, or helpless.
- 5. To pick out from others.
- 6. A persons family or relatives.
- 7. Prayers.