

Roots Revision

Across

3. Someone who is willing to stand up for their faith, even if it means death

8. The first British Christian martyr

9. The religious movement during the sixteenth century in Europe that led to a great revolt against the Catholic Church and creation of the Protestant churches.

10. around the Roman empire in the first century CE.

11. Someone who goes out to preach and teach about Jesus

13. The first Roman emperor who converted to Christianity
14. The England Monarch who separated the Church from Rome in England.

Down

1. A series of religious wars, called by the Pope, with the main goal of restoring Christian control of the Holy Land.

2. The German monk and professor of theology who started the Protestant Reformation.

4. Movement that aims to unite all churches together

5. Branch of Christianity

6. The split that took place between the Catholic and Orthodox Church in 1054

7. The chancellor in the reign of Henry VIII, who was executed for refusing to recognise the break with Rome.

12. After a religious conversion he converted to Christianity and preached the Good