

Name: _____ Date: _____

SACSSP

- |  |                              |
|--|------------------------------|
| 1. A process of investigating the developmental needs and circumstances of a child   | A. Community development     |
| 2. A social worker who has a speciality in adoption services and who is accredited to provide adoption services  | B. Youth worker              |
| 3. A person under the age of 18 years;   | C. SACSSP                    |
| 4. An organisation designated in terms of section 107 to perform designated child protection   | D. Multidisciplinary         |
| 5. A supportive service to social work, rendered by a social auxiliary worker under the supervision of a social worker to further the aims of social work                                    | E. Probation officers        |
| 6. A practice-based profession and an academic discipline that promotes social change and development, social cohesion, and the empowerment and liberation of people.                        | F. services                  |
| 7. A profession which focuses on the developmental needs of children and families within the space and time of their daily lives   | G. Assessment of a child     |
| 8. Social workers who carry out work in the fields of crime prevention, treatment of offenders, care and treatment of victims of crime, and working with families and communities.           | H. Adoption social worker    |
| 9. A person who works within a particular community to implement social change and improve local quality of life by working with individuals, families or entire communities to empower them | I. Child and youth care work |
| 10. A person whose job involves providing support and social activities for young people   | J. Social auxiliary work     |
| 11. South African Council for Social Services Professions  | K. social work               |
| 12. Combining or involving several academic disciplines or professional specializations in an approach to a topic or problem.  | L. Child                     |