

SEP Vocabulary

Across

1. Something that limits or restricts progress
3. To suggest a reason for something happening
8. An observation that involves a physical characteristic
10. A variable that is kept the same in an experiment
14. To compare in order show differences
17. The variable that is measured in an experiment

18. A hypothesis that has been tested over and over and appears to be true

19. An unavoidable danger or risk

20. An educated guess

Down

2. The acronym for how to plot variables on a graph
4. To review, amend, or alter
5. An observation that involves a quantity
6. Seeming worthy of being accepted or possible

7. Connections, associations, or involvements

9. The variable that is changed on purpose in an experiment

11. The results you record in an experiment

12. Another name for a constant variable

13. Accuracy or exactness

15. A chart containing data

16. A procedure, technique, or way of doing something