

Name: _____

SKIN

Across

- 2. The layer of the epidermis that is continually being shed and replaced is the
- 3. The function of the sebum is to keep the skin
- 11. The stratum lucidum is also known as the
- 13. An inflamed pimple containing pus is called a
- 15. A structural change in the tissues caused by injury or disease is known as a
- 16. Arrector Pili muscles are found in the

- 17. The excretion of perspiration from the skin is under the control of the
- 18. elastic and flexible
- 19. layer of fatty tissue found below the dermis also known as adipose tissue

- 20. Melanin protects the skin from the harmful action of excessive

Down

- 1. Melanin, a skin pigment, is found in the stratum germinativum and
- 4. Collagen and elastin are
- 5. itching is an example of a/an
- 6. A recurring viral infection that produces fever blisters or cold sores is

- 7. The duct of an oil gland empties into a
- 8. The scientific study of the skin, its nature, structure, functions, disease and treatment
- 9. The growth of the epidermis starts in the
- 10. blood vessels are found in the
- 12. Sweat glands help to regulate body temperature and eliminate this from the body
- 14. Sensory nerve fibers are distributed to the

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|-----------------|----------------------|---------------------|-----------------|
| protein fibers | subjective symptom | reticular layer | touch |
| skin | pustule | dermis | hair follicle |
| herpes simplex | stratum germinativum | ultraviolet rays | clear layer |
| stratum corneum | lesion | Dermatology | papillary layer |
| lubricated | nervous system | subcutaneous tissue | waste products |