

Name: _____

Date: _____

SPAG REVISION

Across

- 2. 'after dinner,' is an example of what?
- 3. A word that describes the noun.
- 5. A sentence that has a verb commanding you to do something may be in this tense.
- 10. a general noun for an object
- 11. Can replace the conjunction between two linked clauses
- 12. What joins two words in compound word?

13. A word that replaces the noun.

15. A noun that is a feeling or emotion

16. which tense has an auxilliary verb that is the past tense of the verb to have?

18. What tense if this sentence in? If it were to rain, I would take an unbrella.

19. A verb showing the degree of possibility.

20. we can use two dashes to do this.

Down

1. a noun for a group of things

4. a word that is used to give us information about the number of items

6. One way of putting something 'in parenthesis'

7. A joining word.

8. A noun with a capital letter

9. A word that sounds the same but is spelt differently.

14. A type of clause that gives extra information relating to the subject of the sentence

17. what comes before a list