

SPECT

Across

- 2. impressive enough to be worthy of “seeing”
- 4. one who “sees” or “looks” into something
- 8. the way in which a person “sees” through or interprets the world
- 10. very easy to “see”
- 12. something which is “seen,” such as a public event or show
- 13. to “see” something in a certain way that may or may not be factual

- 14. to “see” someone in a good way
- 15. to “see” something happening, such as a sporting event
- 16. a ghost or phantom which appears to someone, allowing itself to be “seen”
- 17. one who “sees” an event

Down

- 1. one “seen” or “viewed” with mistrust
- 3. of an act that should not be “seen”
- 5. of very clearly “seeing”

- 6. of being “seen” with mistrust
- 7. glasses which allow wearers to “see” better
- 9. a waiting to “see”
- 11. to comprehensively “see” something or “look” into it carefully