

STEP Curriculum Review

Across

- 2. Understanding the problem, Brainstorm ideas, consider the solutions, choose a solution and use the solution are part of a five step problem solving method called what?
- 4. One of the three behaviors that time out is appropriate for is what?
- 6. Goal of misbehavior that you might try to get even and can make you feel hurt
- 11. Each child is born with certain qualities called what?
- 12. The positive alternative to fear is called what?
- 13. The belief that we belong, are strong, capable and loved is called what?

- 14. Correcting a child's behavior resulting from their choice/actions is called what?
- 15. What parenting style is strict, has a lot of limitations and has little to no freedom?
- 16. Goal of misbehavior that will make you feel like giving up and result in the child not improving

Down

- 1. The skill to help grow in self-esteem is called what?
- 3. What is the state of mind in which trust is placed in some person or thing?
- 5. What parenting style balancing freedom and limitations while building responsibility.

- 7. Goal of misbehavior that you will remind or coax and can make you feel annoyed
- 8. Teaching manners, appreciating that people are different and helping others all help teach children what?
- 9. Goal of misbehavior that can cause a power struggle and can make you feel angry
- 10. What parenting style has little to no limitations and a lot of freedom often having "spoiled" children?