

STIFF: Dead Man Driving

Across

2. The first _____ were made of plain window glass, and were very faulty when the car crashed.

8. What is one animal that have been used for crash tests?

10. At the _____ they filmed cadavers' heads with a high-speed X-ray video camera during simulated crashes.

11. Which animal is similar to human innards?

13. concerns for heads smashing through are chin-to-scalp lacerations and

14. Every cadaver that rode the crash sleds to test _____ saved 61 lives per year

Down

1. In a _____ the body would slide forward and the chest would slam into the steering wheel

3. Medical schools use a cadaver to

4. has saved an estimated 8,500 lives each year since 1987.

5. are used when functioning organs are needed

6. cut the risk of death in a head-on collision by half with new steering wheel

7. Every cadaver whose head has hammered a _____ saved 68 lives per year.

9. Every cadaver that took an _____ in the face saved 147 lives per year.

12. Cadavers are either dropped or it _____ still while some sort of controllable impacting device is directed at it.