

Safety at the Beach

Across

- 3. Rip _____ (8)
- 4. Sydney's most popular beach
- 6. These waves are safer to bodysurf, as their white water has less force
- 7. A small jellyfish, often found washed up on the shore, has a painful sting even when dead.
- 8. A safe way to enter water where you are unsure of the depth

- 10. Always swim in between the red and _____ flags (6)

Down

- 1. Waves that may never break, as the water below them is very deep
- 2. Waves that can break and knock you over, can cause injury
- 5. Men and women who patrol the beaches
- 9. _____ fishing is often quite dangerous, often close to dangerous water and surf (4)