

Name: _____

Date: _____

Scarlet Pimpernel

Across

- 3. who would have to provide himself with clothes befitting a _____
- 4. Listlessly she sat in the small, still deserted _____, looking out through the curtained doorway...
- 6. But I heard him then, _____ for a vessel to take him swiftly to Calais;
- 11. The wind was becoming _____, rattling the leaded windows and the massive doors of the old-fashioned house
- 15. ...and no wonder that the _____ young Frenchman could scarce take his eyes off her pretty face.
- 16. he added, looking _____ at Marguerite,
- 17. Sir Percy had _____ friends everywhere.

- 19. when she was about to _____ with her gallant.
- 20. ...at the spot where a decade later, a proud _____ Raised an undying monument to the nation's glory...

Down

- 1. that went _____ along the old oak rafters of the parlour
- 2. ...but was playing a _____ and studied part.
- 5. and clapping his worth host _____ on the back.
- 7. What food for gossip to those _____ inclined.
- 8. ...and at this present moment were furious with Pitt for his caution and _____, although they naturally understood nothing...

- 9. get him to clap on a _____ tariff, and put you in the stocks
- 10. in which to warn Percy of the _____ of his danger, and to persuade him to give up the foolhardy expedition, which could only end in his own death.
- 12. ...always excepting the lazy, bored look which was _____ to him.
- 13. Sir Percy realized that his own plans and his directions to his _____ had been stolen by Chauvelin,
- 14. his ingenuity is a _____ miracle.
- 18. ...putting up his eye glass and surveying the young Frenchman with _____ wonderment,