

Schizotypal personality disorder

1. Persons with this disorder are often described as odd or eccentric and usually do not have many close relationships.
 2. Persons with schizotypal disorder usually responds ___ to social cues and hold peculiar beliefs
 3. Persons with schizotypal disorder usually present with what type of emotions and responses?
 4. Schizophrenia hallmark symptoms are
 5. Schizo-affective disorder combines schizophrenia and symptoms related to
 6. Signs of schizotypal disorder include increased interest in ___ activities
 7. Persons with schizotypal disorder benefit from treatments similar to treatments used for ___
 8. A potential cause of this disorder may be linked to_____ during childhood
 9. People with this disorder are at an increased risk for
 10. Risk of development of this disorder is increased if you have a ___ who has schizophrenia or another psychotic disorder
- A. Hallucinations/Delusions
 - B. Mood disorders
 - C. Schizotypal disorder
 - D. Solitary
 - E. Interpersonal Issues
 - F. Personality issues
 - G. Relative
 - H. Schizophrenia
 - I. Inappropriately
 - J. Flat/inappropriate emotions