

Science Lesson 1

Across

4. a state of matter that does not have definite volume or shape

8. a salad is an example of a

9. a state of matter that has definite volume, but does not have definite shape

12. when a solid material disappears in a liquid it is

13. the liquid in which the solute dissolves is called the

Down

1. solid objects have

2. a gas that is mixed with liquid root beer is called

3. a state of matter that has definite volume and definite shape

5. sugar and water is an example of

6. the solid material that dissolves is called the

7. most gases are colorless and

10. a mixture of 2 or more substances that cannot be easily separated

11. two or more materials combined that can be easily separated