

Science Needs

Across

2. A detailed study of a subject used to discover information.
5. A place for experimental study.
7. Facts and research collected for experiments
8. Used to see objects that are too small to the naked Eye
10. To discover the exact size or amount of something

Down

1. A scientific procedure used to discover and test a hypothesis.
3. An instrument used to discover and measure temperature.
4. Optical instrument designed to make distant objects appear near.
6. A lipped cylinder glass container for laboratory use.
9. To watch carefully, listen or notice.