

Science Vocab.

Across

- 3. You explain or interpret things that you observe.
- 5. Information collected from careful study of a subject.
- 10. Are facts, figures, and other evidence collected during a scientific investigation.
- 11. set of beliefs that may make use of science.
- 12. To be arranged in an orderly way.
- 13. an attempt by a different group of scientist s to conduct the same experiment.

- 14. Repetition of a experiment
- 15. is reasoning that is based on evidence.

Down

- 1. scientific experiment in which only one variable is changed at a time
- 2. In any experiment there is a risk of introducing experimental bias in the design of the experiment.
- 4. is data that are collected using scientific processes that describe particular observations.

- 6. possible answer to a scientific question
- 7. idea that may be formed from evidence but has not been confirmed by evidence
- 8. To be arranged in an orderly way.
- 9. includes observations and conclusions that have been repeated.