

Science

Across

- 4. of a resource means using it in ways that maintain the resource at a certain quality for a certain period of time
- 8. Pollution can be created by wates, chemicals, noise, heat, and _____
- 10. Natural resources include organisms, water, sunlight,minerals, and _____
- 11. the contamination of Earth's land, water, or air
- 12. widely spread and cannot be tied to a specific orgin

- 13. Not all _____ are equally available in all parts of the world
- 14. is the practice of managing the use of resources wisely so the resources last longer
- 15. Environmental issues fall into three categories: population growth, pollution, and _____

Down

- 1. Humans depend on Earth's natural resources for survival and for _____

- 2. is the study of natural processes in the environment and how humans can affect them
- 3. resources that are not replaced in a useful time frame
- 5. is either always available or is naturally replaced in a relatively short time
- 6. _____ was slow until about A.D 1650
- 7. anything that occurs naturally in the environment and is used by people
- 9. specific pollution source that can be identified