

Search This!

Across

4. This gives officers the authority to search inside a suspect's garage
7. After a suspect is arrested, police can perform two types of searches: protective sweep and _____
8. In this circumstance, police can enter a home if they believe evidence will be destroyed
9. Search warrants are for _____ and not people
10. This type of consent allows for a health inspector to come unannounced to a restaurant

Down

1. This is a visual inspection of closets and adjoining rooms to dispel any danger
2. A person cannot be arrested in their own home unless police have an _____
3. A search can be done on a person if there is _____ to believe the object is there
5. The only other way police can enter a house without a warrant
6. During the execution of a search warrant, _____ searches can only be done to look for weapons