

Secondary English - Literature Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. sound device that repeats the initial consonant sound of several words in a line of poetry
3. sound devices such as rhyme, meter, alliteration, assonance, and consonance serve to create a work's?
6. sonnet form structured by three quatrains and a concluding couplet
7. Hughes's comparison of life to a staircase in "Mother to Son" illustrates this?
13. Line 1 in Updike's "Winter Ocean" "scud-thumper, tub" is an illustration of this sound device
17. In Hoey's "Foul Shot," lines 9-12, "measures the waiting net, Raises the ball, Balances it, Calms it" illustrates this device
19. "Ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country," is an example of what rhetorical device?
21. this aspect of a metaphor is the original subject being described
22. The line, "diamond-patterned inlaid band" of Chavez's "Rattlesnake" is an example of this sound device
23. the address of an absent audience

24. the main or recurring idea(s) in a literary work
25. device that appeals to one's sensory perception
28. In Cowper's "The Nightingale & the Glowworm," the Nightingale represents the beauty of poetry while the Glowworm?
29. a reference within a literary work to something outside itself to enhance meaning
30. "The Spider and the Wasp" was an example of this form

Down

1. a comparison made using the terms "like" or "as"
4. In his poem, "On the Grasshopper & the Cricket," Keats equates the songs of the insects in all seasons to the balm of influence of?
5. In Rossetti's poem, "Who Has Seen the Wind?" is its opening line, and an example of ?
8. Twain employed this device in "What Stumped the Bluejays" to advance the humorous effect
9. the sonnet form divided by an octave and a sestet
10. an entire story with two levels of meaning

11. In Herbert's "The Windows," the stained glass window is likened to what?
12. a term that itself mimics the sound described
14. words that look alike but do not sound alike
15. An indirect comparison using the part of something to stand for the whole
16. "Stronger by weakness" found in Waller's poem, "The Soul's Dark Cottage" is an example of this kind of statement?
18. Of what poetic form is Stafford's "Traveling Through the Dark" a modern version?
20. a regular pattern of stressed and unstressed syllables
26. author of the poem, "A Bird Came Down the Walk"
27. In King's speech, he often uses this rhetorical device that is the deliberate repetition of words or phrases at the beginnings of lines of poetry, grammatical units, or paragraphs?