

Selecting Wood & Lumber

Across

- 1. From broadleaf trees
- 3. quality _____ does not require all lumber to be best grade
- 5. From deciduous trees
- 7. cuts a log at less than 45 degree angle
- 11. the actual sizes are 1/2" less than the _____ sizes
- 15. knots. holes. splits. shakes. etc
- 16. posts, fences, patios, siding

- 19. Oak. Walnut. Maple. Mahogany. Birch
 - 20. light, straight, strong and resonant
 - 21. several grades of lumber may be appropriate in a single
 - 22. beautiful, brown, open grain
 - 23. a common defect
- Down
- 2. basis of lumber grades
 - 4. impairs wood's appearance
 - 6. Used in floors, interior finish, barrels, furniture
 - 8. light and easy to split

- 9. suitable for paint finishes
- 10. redwood. Cedar. Spruce. Fir. Pine
- 12. _____ sawing cuts a log forming more than 45 degree angle
- 13. s2s is surfaced on _____ sides
- 14. plywood d has
- 17. Rough lumber comes directly from the _____
- 18. suitable for natural finishes