

Serotonin Syndrome

Across

6. %45 of this symptoms appears in serotonin syndrome where one perspires
9. this syndrome results from an excess of this neurotransmitter
10. an excitatory response is created when serotonin binds to serotonin (blank)

Down

1. for myoclonus or hyperreflexia this type of medication is given
2. serotonin syndrome can result from self-poisoning, drug interactions, and even (blank) doses

3. these symptoms Mental-status changes, Autonomic hyperactivity, Neuromuscular Abnormalities are referred to as
4. mnemonic to remember symptoms of serotonin syndrome
5. serotonin syndrome can be confused with (use acronym)
7. serotonin syndrome has what type of onset
8. immediate treatment of serotonin syndrome is to (blank) medications