

Set #11

Across

4. A method of reasoning- from general to specific
5. A nonspecific, general statement or concept made based on a person's understanding of a topic.
8. The repetition of a phrase but in reversal order.
9. A form of reasoning that goes from specific instances to a general conclusion.
10. A main character in a movie, story, or drama that is void of conventional heroic attributes such as courage, idealism, and morality.

Down

1. showcasing of something being smaller/less significant than it is
2. The repetition of words at the end of successive clauses.
3. A mix of statements, ideas, or elements of a situation that oppose each other.
6. A reiteration of a word/phrase at the beginning of successive clauses.
7. A place or time where everything is perfect.