

Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome (SARS)

Across

2. This is the most common way for the virus to spread

7. What country was the epicenter for this virus?

10. How close does a person have to be near an infected person to contract SARS?

11. This allows the virus to latch onto cells for infection and is what gives the virus its 'corona' moniker

13. This symptom may develop after 2-7 days

14. The coronavirus is also linked to this disease

16. In what year was the SARS virus discovered?

17. This is the most recent strain of coronavirus

Down

1. This is a common symptom of SARS

3. The virus originally infected these but later evolved to infect humans

4. What gives the virus its structure and enables it to replicate?

5. What part of the world did SARS originate from?

6. What is the waxy barrier that protects the virus outside of a host cell?

8. This symptom only occurs in 10-20% of SARS cases

9. What is one way in which SARS is transmitted?

12. What is a common symptom caused by SARS?

15. What is the official name for SARS virus?

Word Bank

Asia	Droplets	Diarrhea	Headache	Nucleoproteins
Animals	Viral Envelope	Kissing	Dry Cough	COVID19
Two Thousand Three	MERS	Spike Protein	SARS-CoV	Three Feet
China	Pneumonia			