

Sewing Unit

Across

2. part of the machine that holds the fabric down
 5. symbol the feed dog setting should be set to
 9. direction the bobbin should spin inside the bobbin case
 11. part of the needle the thread goes through
 12. when ready to sew, both threads should be positioned _____ the presser foot
 13. an iron should rest on its _____ when not in use

14. using heat in a back & forth motion to remove wrinkles
 15. hand stitch used to close holes and edges
 16. part of the machine used to control the needle manually

Down

1. the side of the fabric you should be looking at when sewing on the machine
 3. part that moves the thread through the top part of the machine

4. part of the machine used to control your speed
 6. when passing these, keep blades pointing down
 7. "teeth" under the throat plate that help move the fabric
 8. tool used for removing stitches
 10. side of the needle the bulk of your fabric should be when sewing