

Shackleton Vocabulary

Across

- 6. Objects believed to have magical powers; as being able to protect someone
- 9. Decaying, rotting, decomposing
- 10. A trace of something that is disappearing or no longer exists
- 11. Making or performing something without prior preparation

13. Using a sled pulled by animals to move across snow or ice

14. Unconcerned; not bothered

Down

- 1. Distance on Earth measured east/west of the prime meridian
- 2. Describing the art or science of plotting, ascertaining, or directing the course of something, such as a ship
- 3. An open channel

4. Stubborn or immovable

5. Lack of variety; boredom

7. Describes food that is tender, juicy, and tasty

8. Massive pieces of floating ice

12. Soaked through and through; saturated

Word Bank

- |           |              |               |             |           |
|-----------|--------------|---------------|-------------|-----------|
| Longitude | Navigational | Improvisation | Unperturbed | Talismans |
| Vestige   | Sledging     | Putrefying    | Lead        | Iceberg   |
| Obstinate | Sodden       | Monotony      | Succulent   |           |