

Name: _____ Date: _____

Shampooing and Sculpture Theory

1. Which type of water is generally preferred for Shampooing? A. oval
2. When brushing the clients hair, where do you begin? B. petrissage
3. Massage movement that involves light or heavy kneading. C. texture
4. The light tapping or slapping massage movement. D. zero
5. A highly stimulating massage manipulation. E. tapotement
6. Sculpture transformation is all about changing the shape, surface texture and: F. structure
7. A hair sculpture can be identified by observing the outer boundary or silhouette known as the: G. form line
8. The surface appearance of hair is referred to as: H. round
9. A solid form haircut is cut at what degree or projection? I. soft water
10. A uniformly layered haircut will produce this shape. J. vibration
11. An increased layered form haircut will generally have this shape. K. from the ends
12. The artistic carving or removing of hair lengths is: L. sculpting