

Name: _____

Date: _____

Short pieces

Across

4. Can be used to describe what the character says

6. Part of the story that creates suspense and leaves the reader wondering what will happen next

9. A literary device used to compare two sentences using the verb-to be

11. Events in a story that tell the reader an action is complete in the story

12. This can describe what a character does. (characterization)

13. A literary device used to compare two items or ideas using 'like' or 'as'

14. A punctuation mark that tells the reader exactly what someone said in a conversation

Down

1. A poetic device used to make an inanimate object seem real and lifelike

2. A character can be described by how he/she looks

3. Where we learn about the setting and characters

5. Events in a story which lead up to the climax

7. A literary device used to exaggerate a statement

8. The problem a character faces that needs to be solved.

10. The finale of a story. We learn how the story ended.