

Short story terminology

Across

- 5. This is the turning point of the story
- 10. The beginning of the story where the characters and the setting are revealed
- 11. The story's main character or hero
- 12. The problem that occurs in the story is introduced
- 15. The time and location in which a story takes place is called
- 16. A person who struggles with the weather
- 18. The angle in which the story is told

- 19. The kind of conflict is observed when two men are fighting
- 20. When the events and complications are cleared up or resolved is called

Down

- 1. What type of character develops and changes by the end of the story
- 2. A struggle within one's self
- 3. the leading character struggles against ideas, practices, or customs of other people
- 4. The part of the story in which the suspense builds

- 6. The opposer of the main character is called
- 7. the sequence of events in a story - what happens.
- 8. The feeling that is created at the beginning of the story
- 9. What viewpoint is utilised when the story is told using I, me, we, etc.
- 13. the story's moral or message or ideas about life
- 14. what viewpoint is utilised when the story is told using he, she, they, etc.
- 17. What type of struggle is with a force outside one's self