

Shoulder Dystocia

Across

- 5. Shoulder dystocia is the impaction of which fetal shoulder?
- 7. Each additional staff who respond should be assigned a _____?
- 8. The nurse should apply firm pressure to the area around the _____ during suprapubic pressure?
- 10. Positioning the patient on all fours is what maneuver?
- 11. What is an important intervention?

- 12. What maneuver involves assisting the woman to hyperflex her thighs against her abdomen to facilitate delivery of the shoulder?
- 13. What is a risk factor for shoulder dystocia?

Down

- 1. Maternal complications of shoulder dystocia include?
- 2. Activating the _____ timer on the infant warmer can assist with timekeeping.

- 3. Neonatal complications of shoulder dystocia include?
- 4. Ensure _____ of the circumstances and the steps taken by the healthcare team to manage the shoulder dystocia.
- 6. What should the nurse identify before applying suprapubic pressure?
- 9. WW. _____ may be used before, after, or in conjunction with suprapubic pressure