

Skeletal Assignment

Across

- 2. Type of joint: The elbow is an example of what joint?
- 7. Type of fracture: Bone breaks cleanly but ends do not break the skin.
- 11. Type of fracture: Bone is impacted or driven into another piece of bone.
- 12. Type of fracture: Jagged bone ends are s-shape when excessive torsion is applied to a fixed bone.
- 13. What is the "thigh bone" called?
- 14. Type of joint: The shoulder is an example of what joint?

18. Type of joint: A joint that does not move.

19. What do phalanges refer to?

20. Type of Bone: This type of bone has an epiphyseal plate.

Down

- 1. Type of fracture: Bone breaks incompletely, as a greenstick breaks.
- 3. Type of fracture: Bone ends penetrate through soft tissue and skin.
- 4. What age group (humans) have about 200 bones?
- 5. Type of Bone: A bones that grow as you get older.

6. What is an injury to ligaments?

8. What is the framework/system of bones in your body called?

9. Type of fracture: Break occurs in a straight line across the bone.

10. Scientific term for the word "collarbone"

15. What age group (humans) have about 300 bones?

16. Type of bone: Carpals and Tarsals are examples of what type of bone?

17. What does the prefix "Osteo" mean?