

Name: _____ Date: _____

Skilled--Or Not So Skilled

- |   |                 |
|---|-----------------|
| 1. cunning; crafty; wily.   | A. Crafty       |
| 2. serving as a model or example; illustrative.                               | B. Anarchist    |
| 3. skillful in a physical or mental way; clever; dexterous.                   | C. Adroit       |
| 4. subtly deceitful; artful.  | D. Insufficient |
| 5. well qualified; capable; fit; sufficient.                                  | E. Endowed      |
| 6. not suitable to the purpose; unfit; clumsy.                                | F. Astute       |
| 7. grossly stupid or dull; tasteless, insensitive, or coarse.                 | G. Crass        |
| 8. not enough; inadequate.  | H. Exemplary    |
| 9. accomplished; expert.  | I. Skillful     |
| 10. a person who believes in or advocates the complete absence of government. | J. Masterful    |
| 11. provided with some talent or quality.                                     | K. Competent    |
| 12. person or thing rejected, as by society; rejected.                        | L. Imaginative  |
| 13. having great creative powers.   | M. Expertise    |
| 14. the skill or knowledge of an expert.                                      | N. Outcast      |
| 15. expert; skill; having or showing the ability of an expert.                | O. Inept        |