

Name: _____

Date: _____

Skin Cancer Puzzle

Across

3. When going outside for a long duration, you should put on sunscreen with a SPF of _____ or higher.

4. What does the R stand for in UVR?

5. If your _____ are blue, green or grey, you are at a higher risk for melanoma.

8. When a mole is larger than 6 mm (the size of a pencil eraser)

11. If your hair is _____ or red, you are at a higher risk for melanoma.

13. This is an environmental carcinogen.

14. When two halves of the mole are not mirror images.

15. You should always avoid going to this artificial type of sun.

Down

1. If you have blistering sunburns before the age of 20, it will put you at a higher risk of developing this type of cancer.

2. When the edges of the mole are jagged and uneven.

6. This is what we say when tumors spread to other parts of our bodies.

7. People who have a fair complexion tend to blister and _____ easy.

9. When the mole is blue, red or white.

10. This type of skin cancer is the most common form diagnosed in the United States.

12. This type of skin cancer is found in the upper portion of the epidermis. If it goes untreated, it can spread and kill you.