

Small Business Insurance

Across

4. Business structure that makes the person who is a main owner responsible.

9. Covers when an employee gets hurt on the job

10. An arrangement where a company or government agency guarantees for a specified loss, damage, etc.

11. Most common form of insurance

13. Insurance used to protect your company if you store information on the computer.

14. Provides you as the owner defense or damages you or your employees get hurt on the job or if a product you create causes harm to a third party.

15. Insurance that is just sold to partners

Down

1. Insurance that provides coverage when you don't do the services you were called to do or you do them improperly.

2. Risk of the corporation is normally in the hands of these people.

3. Insurance is built just for these type of scenarios.

5. Insurance that covers the key man until death or 120 years old.

6. This insurance policy is a way to bundle things that might only be specific for your personal business.

7. This insurance helps you with medical issues.

8. A insurance policy for when a key man is no longer able to work because of this type of illness.

12. Allows you to cover the key man for a certain amount of time.