

Name: _____ Date: _____

Smart -- Or Not So Smart

- |  |              |
|--|--------------|
| 1. Having a sharp point; keen or quick of mind; shrewd.  | A. Vigilant  |
| 2. Having or showing keen intelligence, great talent, or skill.  | B. Rational  |
| 3. A person who is always clowning and trying to be funny; clown.  | C. Impostor  |
| 4. Slow to understand; thick.  | D. Witty     |
| 5. A person who deceives or cheats others, especially by pretending to be someone or something that he or she is not.  | E. Dense     |
| 6. Sharp; keen; penetrating; cutting into.   | F. Buffoon   |
| 7. Skilled in inventing; creative.   | G. Inventive |
| 8. Having, applying, or showing sound judgement; wise and careful.   | H. Sage      |
| 9. A person, thing, or act so extraordinary as to inspire wonder, especially a child of highly unusual talent or genius.   | I. Incisive  |
| 10. An untrained person who practices medicine fraudulently; any person who pretends to have knowledge or skill that he or she does not have in a particular field; charlatan; sound made by a duck. | J. Acute     |
| 11. Derived from reasoning; showing reason; not foolish or silly; sensible.  | K. Brilliant |
| 12. A very wise man, especially an elderly man widely respected for his wisdom, experience, and judgment.  | L. Prodigy   |
| 13. A shrewdness or understanding; know-how.   | M. Quack     |
| 14. Staying watchful and alert to danger or trouble.   | N. Savvy     |
| 15. Having, showing, or characterizing by wit; cleverly amusing; having sharp, amusing cleverness.   | O. Judicious |