

Social Groupings

Across

3. A word for describing someone in a social group.

4. Words that downtone the meaning of the following word.

6. An abbreviation for when people are talking about something that happened in the past by using present tense.

8. Phrases like 'and stuff', 'and things', 'and all that'.

11. Theory which proves that individuals adjust their speech patterns to match others.

12. Words like 'very', 'really' that occur before an adjective or an adverb.

15. Language that is considered very informal and is more common in speech than in writing.

17. A specialised speech style used by younger adults when addressing older adults.

18. Special words or expressions used by a profession or group that are difficult for others to understand.

19. Words like 'mmm', 'yeah' that are used by listeners to show the speaker that they are paying attention.

Down

1. A way of pronouncing a language.

2. A sound formed by the combination of two vowels in a single syllable, in which the sound begins as one vowel and moves towards another eg 'coin' and 'loud'.

5. A word or a phrase like 'anyway', 'right', 'okay' that is used to connect, organise and manage what we say. (two words)

7. A variety of language which is influenced by a social group.

9. A non-fluency feature which indicates a mistake of starting too soon in writing, speaking etc. (two words)

10. A 'pure' vowel sound the beginning and the end of which is more or less the same.

13. Term that is used to describe speech that is specific to an individual.

14. A form of language that varies mainly according to geographical location and social class.

16. A word or phrase (such as this, that, these, those, now, then) that points to the time, place, or situation.