

Social Justice Vocabulary By: Alyson Piskulic

Across

2. (verb) to act or be in accordance with wishes, requests, or demands etc.

3. (verb) to imply or hint

5. (noun) something that incites, instigates, angers or irritates

10. (noun) the mental distress or derangement

14. (Verb) to regard as resulting from a specified cause.

15. (noun) skill employed in a shrewd or sly manner

16. (verb) to deprive of courage, strength, determination, or confidence; upset

17. (verb) to come to an end; dying

18. (noun) the influence of a particular feeling

19. (verb) to place between; cause to intervene

20. (noun and adj) a gloomy state of mind (depressed), especially when habitual or prolonged

22. (Adj) enchanting, charming; fascinating.

26. (adj) spacious and convenient/ample or adequate

27. (adj) pleasant or agreeable in taste or smell

28. (noun) person who attacks

29. (verb) to cause to be or become; make

Down

1. (verb) to rob of goods or valuables by open force (like war or raids)

4. (noun) desire to inflict injury, harm, or suffering on another, either because of a hostile impulse or out of evilness

6. (adj) suffering from anxiety, sorrow, or pain

7. (noun) state of being solemn; earnestness; gravity; impressiveness

8. (Verb) to be able to do, manage, or bear without serious consequence or adverse effect.

9. (verb) to scatter here and there or place intervals among other things

11. (adj) extraordinary; remarkable; exceptional or unusual or weird

12. (verb) to ask (a person) earnestly

13. (adj) having or showing great warmth or intensity of spirit

21. (noun) A state of pain, distress, or grief; misery.

23. (adj) marked by monotony or tedium; long or tiresome

24. (adj) that is to be regrettable; unfortunate

25. (verb) to force or drive, especially in a course of action