

Social Relations

Across

3. an unjustifiable attitude toward a group and its members
9. "Us" - people with whom one shares a common identity
11. an aroused state of intense positive absorption in another, usually present at the beginning of a love relationship
12. shared goals that override differences among people and require their cooperation
14. a generalized belief about a group of people
15. psychologist who studied the impact of shared goals on cooperation

17. revealing intimate aspects of oneself to others

18. the tendency to believe that people get what they deserve and deserve what they get

Down

1. the phenomenon that repeated exposure to novel stimuli increases liking of them
2. the deep affectionate attachment we feel for those with whom our lives are intertwined
4. the theory that prejudice provides an outlet for anger by providing someone to blame
5. "Them" - those perceived as different or apart from "us"

6. any physical or verbal behavior intended to hurt or destroy

7. Psychologist who, with Bibb Latane, researched the circumstances that determine when a bystander will intervene on behalf of another person

8. the tendency for any given bystander to be less likely to give aid if other bystanders are present

10. in social relations, taking action against a group of people because of stereotyped beliefs and feelings of prejudice

13. the tendency to favor one's group

16. unselfish regard for the welfare of others